
Chapter 14

Irreplaceable Moment

Summary Up To Last Episode
In order to obtain the strength to beat General Genga Shishileo, Triger, and Chelda trained zealously, but...
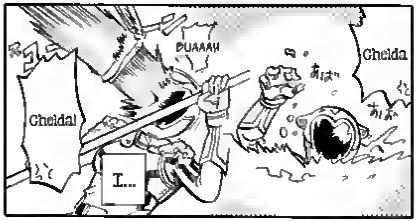
Tokusatsu tidbits: The cliche special training



PUAAAH
Chelda
Chelda!
I...

PIAAAAH!
Chelda, keep it together!

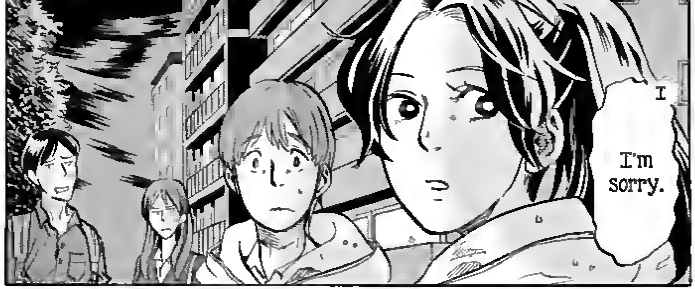
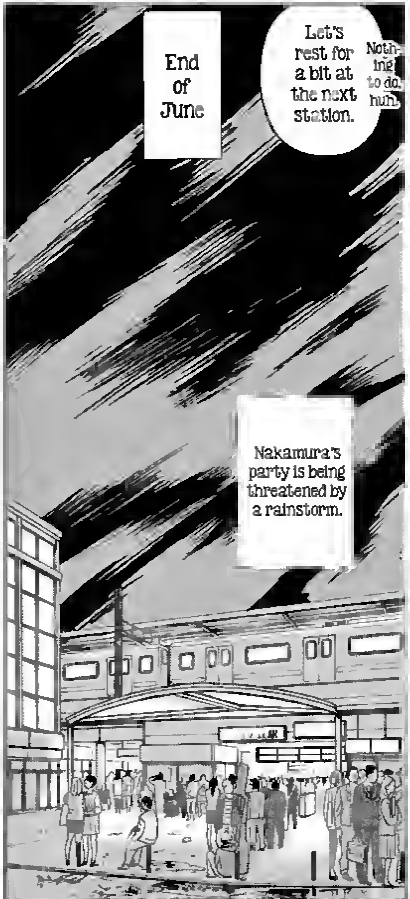
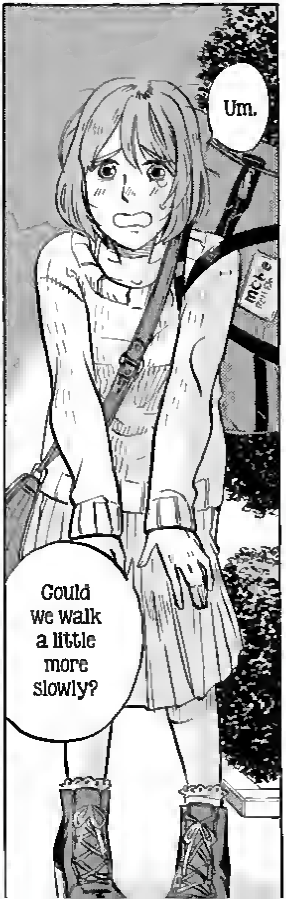
We're all striving for the same thing,
Don't cry right away!
but I'm sobbing alone...
I'm sorry, I'm sorry.



I
I'm sorry.



End of June
Let's rest for a bit at the next station.
Nothing to do, huh.
Nakamura's party is being threatened by a rainstorm.



Um.
Could we walk a little more slowly?

The traffic network of the city has come to a halt.
Every one in the same railway line as well as those in the nearest station came up with the idea to try walking back.
We are the so called troubled commuters.
The rain and winds have stopped now.
It's still not working?
Are you okay?
You're wearing pretty big heels.
It must be hard to walk
I.. I'm sorry.. I was actually going to my boyfriend's house for the first time in a long time.
So I went to work a little fashionably.
My cellphone's battery ran out along the way and my boyfriend's last text was "I'm waiting at the station" so I have to get there quickly.
But I think it's impossible in these shoes.
No no
It's fine.
Don't worry about it so much.

I'm so stupid.
And I knew there was a typhoon too.
Because I
That's not true.
This girl's so like Chelda...
Even now...
Nakamura san's so nice...
It's comforting
«In contrast to Onoda's feelings, Nakamura's kindness comes with an impure motive...

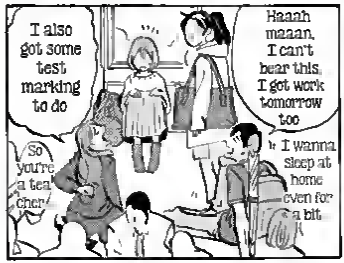
Wanna watch Tokusatsu in real time, so I just wanna get home before tomorrow. (Sunday, 7:30am)
That's right. Today is actually Saturday.
It was originally my day off, but...

The event itself ended safely before the typhoon, but...
International Business Summit
I got coerced into helping my companies joint event.

It really might be best for us to walk it out.
Even if we do there's a delay. So nothing's gonna work.
No good. We're not sure when we can get on a bus or taxi.
Hey

Let's do our best to head home!
I can't deal with my precious time off being wasted any further!
Okay
I'm gonna watch it in real time at any cost.
*'TokuOta' implusively like the watch and listen to Tokusatsu in real time



I also got some test marking to do
Haaah maaan, I can't bear this. I got work tomorrow too
I wanna sleep at home even for a bit
So you're a teac[illegible] then

Corporate slaves have no free time
Yeah.
Uhh, today's Saturday, but you have work tomorrow?

Everyone here who's in a suit feels the same way.
Well,
I know that you're tired though...
WHOOSH
Good for you. You're able to squeeze in some date plans.
And you have the time to be able to go out in such cute shoes.
They're scary
Every-one's just tired from work.
Don't mind them so much.
NOD

It's this late already.
It's morning

Ah
Uhh...

You guys, wake up, wake up!
I think I only have an hour to get back
I slept.
We still haven't moved?
If we walk at Chelda's (temp) pace, I might make it in time Just barely.

I-I can't just stay here.
You guys go ahead...

But look, I'll cause more trouble with my shoes.
No... your boyfriend is waiting for you, right?
It's just a little closer.

Just go!
Don't mind me.
Wha...
What're you talking about, Chelda (temp).
THAT'S A DEATH FLAG!!

Compared to that, my date's just a small smidge.
I don't think I can complain about it.
It's better that way.
Well. It'll take time with those heels.
And it's not like it's the end of the world.
I...
The people around me,
If you say that, it actually makes it harder to leave you behind!
Goodbye
Sign: Cat abandoning mountain
Uuuugh. I keep rashly thinking of her as Chelda.
Are working on a Saturday.
And they're doing their best despite going through all this.

I think that's wrong!
I... I think that's Because...
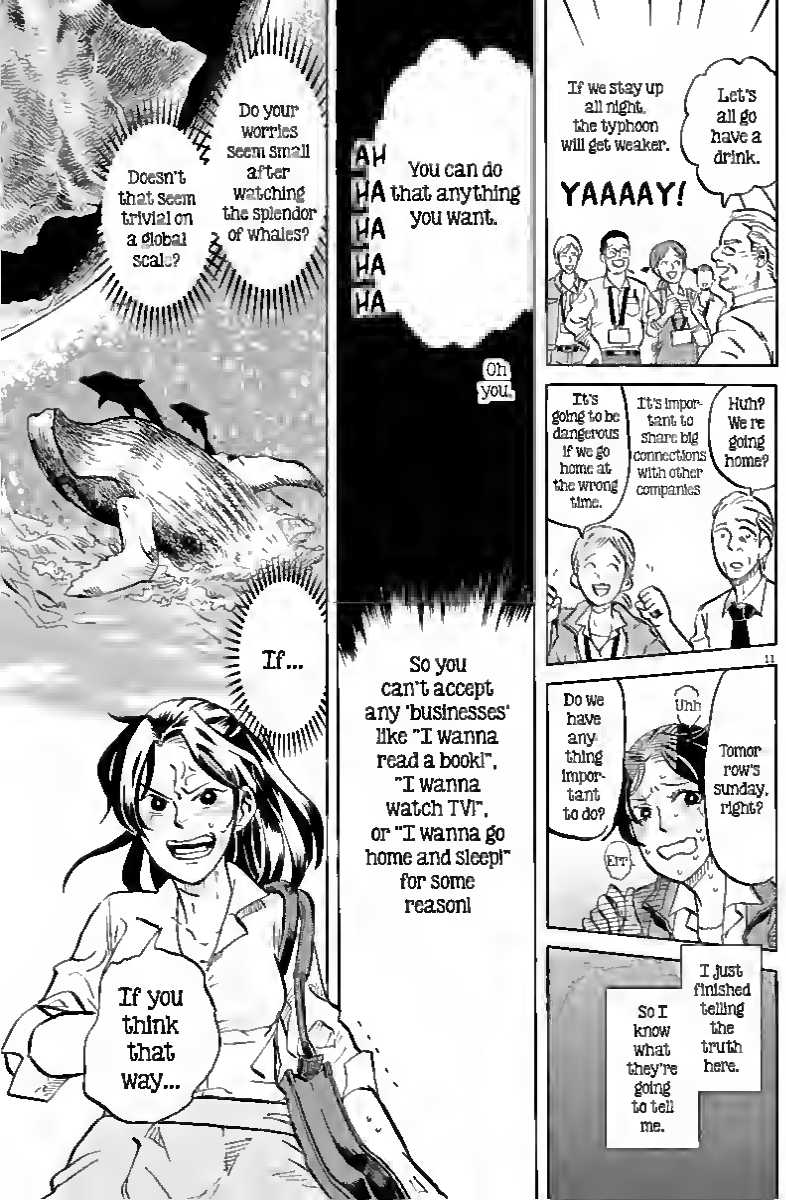
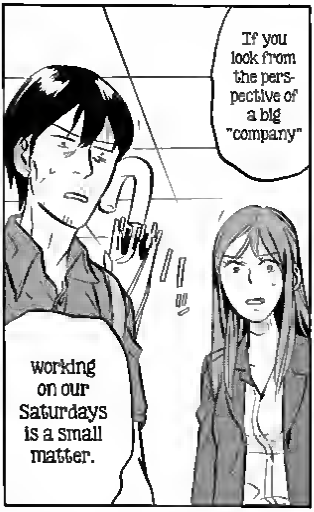
Because if you say that,
just, the wrong way to go about it.
Shut up.
There's no way I'd overlook that.
Ideal Sunday
Watching while in bed
Eating ice cream or something in the morning
Having a second siesta after that
I'm no different since I just wanna go home and watch TV, right!?
Actually, I might've been able to get home before the trains suspended services too, but...
We have a good chance now. People from several different companies have gathered together.



Doesn't that seem trivial on a global scale?
Do your worries seem small after watching the splendor of whales?
AHHAHAHAHA
You can do that anything you want.
Oh you.
If...
So you can't accept any 'businesses' like "I wanna read a book!", "I wanna watch TV!", or "I wanna go home and sleep!" for some reason!
If you think that way...
If we stay up all night, the typhoon will get weaker.
Let's all go have a drink.
YAAAAY!
It's going to be dangerous if we go home at the wrong time.
It's important to share big connections with other companies
Huh? We're going home?
11
Do we have anything important to do?
Uhh
Tomorrow's sunday, right?
Err
I just finished telling the truth here.
So I know what they're going to tell me.

But aren't companies just making us work on Saturdays and typhoon days?
We have a tendency to show up on the weekend because we imagine that there are busier people than us out there who're enduring this pain



If you look from the perspective of a big "company" working on our Saturdays is a small matter.

There's nothing to compare.
For you,
For me.

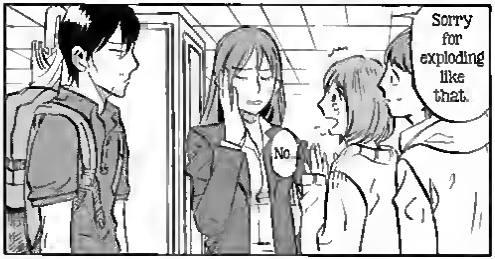
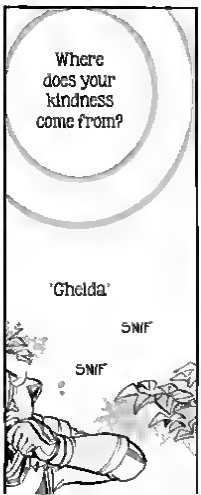
7:30
A date
My real broadcast
We've been waiting.
Sorry for the wait.
is a moment in time we can't replace.
Am I right?

Welp
Just because we're busy with stuff.
Doesn't mean that those playing around are at fault here
Huh?
Yeah..



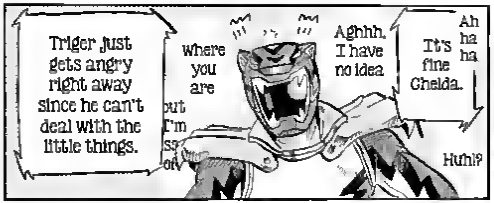
Sorry for exploding like that.
No.

Nakamura-san...



Where does your kindness come from?
'Ghelda'
SNIF
SNIF

All for someone you just met...
Let's go quickly if you get it...
I just wanna go home
She's just protecting herself here



Triger just gets angry right away since he can't deal with the little things.
Where you are but I'm Aghhh. I have no idea
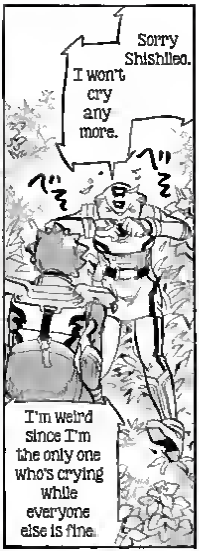
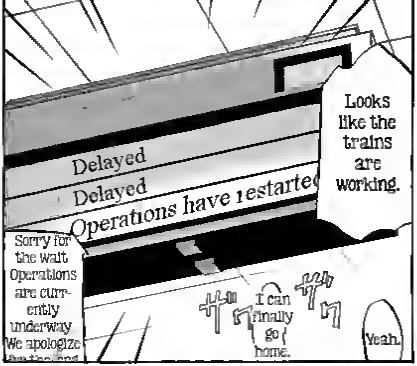
It's fine Ghelda.
Ah ha ha
Huh!?



Sorry Shishiled. I won't cry any more.
I'm weird since I'm the only one who's crying while everyone else is fine.

There we go.
You're the same, right?

We don't need to be the same.
Ghelda, if you think that it's hard and sad, it will be hard and sad.
It isn't for someone else to decide.
Right.



Delayed
Delayed
Operations have restarted
Sorry for the wait. Operations are currently underway. We apologize for the Looks like the trains are working.
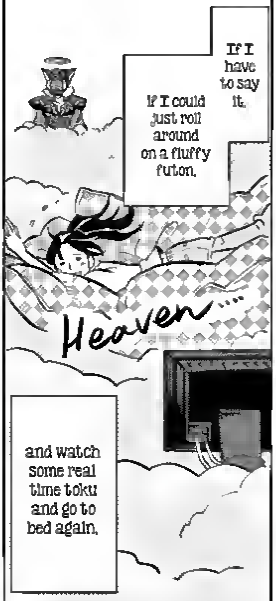
I can finally go home.
Yeah.



If I have to say it,
If I could just roll around on a fluffy futon, Heaven.... and watch some real time toku and go to bed again.

Yaaay
Now I have time to take a bath.
Actually, I'm so glad we didn't have to leave the station.
Thank god, now this'll come to an end without having to walk.

Uuugh
Let's do our best
Haaaaaaa
Well I have work to do even after I get home...

working on Saturdays and typhoons will seem like nothing
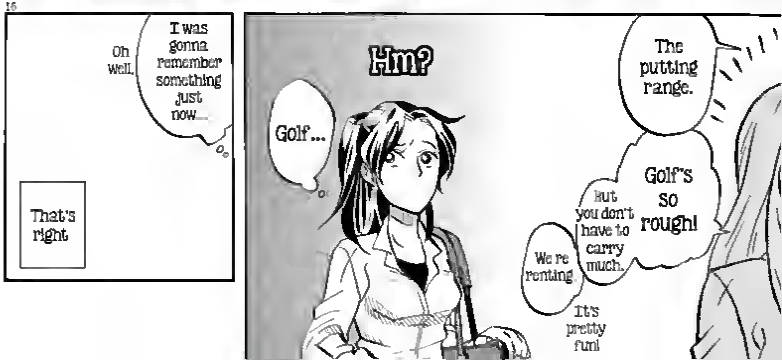
Ah.

I guess so.
It'll be nice if we have a good Sunday in our own ways.
But uhh...
Okay, let's go.
You said some nice stuff, Onoda kun.
Nice follow up
Where are you going today?
Please don't push
It's nice to have a boyfriend.
a wonderful Sunday
It's already



That's right
Oh well,
I was gonna remember something just now...
Hm?
Golf...
The putting range.
Golf's so rough!
But you don't have to carry much.
We're renting
It's pretty fun!

she would have been mentally prepared for.
If she remembered at that moment

ピン
Ahh, nothing less from Tiger Woody! That was a nice approach!

The threat she wanted to avoid aside from the violent storm and something that would definitely happen on this occasion.
Waaahh, today's Juushou-wan has so many zoom outs.
And there are so many foreigner guest characters..
A break in Tokusatsu broadcasting because of the All American Golf Open.
